THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES

The Footage Detectives - Episode 157 -

Hello fellow Footage Detectives! Its reels a plenty this week and filled with Pete Murray appearances! Yes we asked; you answered and along with footage to share with dear Pete, there's some wonderful stories. Great behind the scenes stories from Maureen Evans and the great Karen Kay and there's more! There's some 60s pop to take us back this week, a totally pop tastic bit of a fun reel - also brilliant footage of a model aircraft competition. We know how much you all love your model airplanes! But where and when was this shot? 40s? 50s?— and of course some interesting Z cars continuity bluffs to keep us footage detectives on our toes! and who remembers, 'Syrup of White Pine and Tar'? Or Caxton Chocolate? Or Tudor Crisps from Scotland? or perhaps you remember the 'Film Review', a free magazine when visiting the Ritz cinema in Leyton and the Granada Walthamstow? and we need your help to find lost footage of Smallford Station. Along with the small Hatfield & St Albans Railway Line- have you spotted this station or line in a film perhaps? We'll see you Sunday at 5 for THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES! We'll be keeping it live...on the old six five!
