THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES

The Footage Detectives - Episode 166 -

Hello all you celluloid savers! This week we are jetting off to Heathrow in 1958! It's a soaringly brilliant piece of film. Wait till you see the 'passenger restaurant'! Then, Noel's uncovered a fantastic reel. A film about the production of newspapers in the 70s... It's a 'reel' page-turner that takes you behind the headlines! And calling all Baby Boomers from the 50s! Have you still got your Beezer Bingo Banger? If not, why not?! And what about your customised pushbike? Do you remember AGM potato crisps? And what links the two Doctors in the film White Corridors? Also Actor Raymond Francis's daughter needs your help. And there's been a possible sighting of soap royalty, Helen Worth in The Wheeltappers and Shunters Club... But it's not just soap royalty. Could that be Prince Philip sailing away in Appointment With Venus? And can you help a son find his musical mum, Dolores Ventura, on film? I promise it will all make sense if you join us on Sunday at 5 for THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES!
