THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES

The Footage Detectives - Episode 197 - Ello, Ello, Ello! What's all this then? Absolutely nothing criminal here Sir! If you haven't guessed, this week, we're on the beat with some bobbies in 1940s Glasgow! Shouldn't that be "the Polis"? Anyway, if you're into Police boxes, you'll be in time-travelling heaven! Then, Bella Italia beckons as we zip back to the 60s for some sun, sightseeing, and the Olympics! We've some beautiful old reels of autumn... And Peter Sellers drops in with a message about... (drum roll) milk. You've sent in some real blasts from the past - from Scrummy biscuits to Chipmunk crisps... And reminded us of The Rapier Rangers club in the 60s! Of course, there's been some spectacular sleuthing from you too - from spotting Sheila Ashton struggling with household chores in A Family at War, to a geography fail in Richard The Lionheart. And we need your help! Or perhaps you were one of the evacuees in Southerdown near Bridgend during the war? It's a packed show - and we've not even mentioned a possible sighting of Peter Sellers in For The Love of Ada! So do join us Sunday at 5 or Monday at 7 for... THE FOOTAGE DETECTIVES! (DRESSED AS CLOUSEAU)
